Road Safety

Please can we ask our Year 6 pupils who walk home to make sure they cross safely at the crossings and also that they take responsibility for crossing the busy roads, particularly around the neighbouring schools, safely!

- Please never run out into the road/into traffic
- Avoid crossing behind parked cars
- Cross without distraction- put phones away, take out earphones and stop talking to friends

Stay safe kids, thank you!

Parking on Clover Way

Please can we politely remind all parent/carers not to park in Clover Way and also to be mindful of access into surrounding roads when dropping off and picking up from school. Please whenever possible use the shared car park or park and stride from a safer spot further away from the school. Thank you.

Feast of St Peter & St Paul Liturgy- Tuesday 2nd July

A reminder that our pupils in Year 5E will be hosting a Liturgy on Tuesday 2nd July to celebrate the Feast of St Peter & St Paul, parents are very welcome to join.

Year 4 Road Safety Workshops- Tuesday 2nd & Wednesday 3rd July

Year 4 have their road safety workshop 'Pedestrian Skills' on 2nd and 3rd July where children will be led by a Herts County Council Instructor to practice road crossing skills under supervision.

This is the final session in our series this term which has included the following workshops:

- Year 3 took part in 'Safer crossing Places' where they discussed making active journeys (walking, cycling and scooting), safer places to cross and the Green Cross Code
- Year 5 took part in 'Distractions' which demonstrated the dangers of mobile phone distraction and their consequences while providing coping strategies to maximise concentration while out walking near roads
- Year 6 took part in a Street Engineering Quiz, introducing them to safe, sustainable and independent travel

Brass Concert- Wednesday 3rd July

Mr Jones would like to invite our parent/carers of the children who play a brass instrument, to their Brass Concert on Wednesday 3rd July at 2.30pm.
